FRENCH LAW-SUIT IS 600 YEARS OLD!

OKLAHOMA EDITOR WAS WHIPPED BY MASKED-MEN

Editor Moore, of Drumright Post, Charged With Opposing Law Enforcement and Lining Up With the Oklahoma Criminal Element.

Drumright, Okla., Feb. 1.—R. L. Moore, editor of the Drumright Post, was seized by a band of six masked men at 7 o'clock last night, taken to a thickly wooded spot a few miles southeast of the city and severely flogged with a blacksnake whip, police said today. Moore said he asked the members of the band why they had seized him, according to the police, and was told it was because he had been printing radical editorials, advocating overthrow of the city, county and state government, and had lined up with the lawless element. At 7 o'clock last night Moore, who lives on the outskirts of the city, said he was walking home when he was accosted by an unmasked man. While they were engaged in conversation an automobile carrying six masked men drove up and he was thrown into the car, he said. The machine then was driven rapidly out of town. After the whip had been applied hot tar was poured into the wounds, Moore said. Following this the men replaced his clothing, returned him to the edge of the city and threw him out into the street, he added, warning him to leave Drumright before dark tonight under penalty of another whipping, according to the police statements. Moore said he had no idea whether to leave town. It is stated there is more crime, debauchery and infamy going on in Oklahoma than ever before known and thieves, thugs, crooks, loafers and hi-jackers are preying on all honest people.

TAR AND FEATHER MAN NAMED BASS AT PLAINVIEW.

Plainview, Texas, Feb. 1.—Only a pair of trousers and a coat of tar and feathers last night separated George E. Bass from the cold winds which swept across the Panhandle. Bass was turned loose at a downtown street intersection here at 8:30 o'clock last night thusly clad. His back was bleeding, according to persons in a local drug store, into which Bass went by command of a mob said to have been wearing the Ku Klux Klan regalia. Adhering to the thick coat of tar was card bearing these words: "Work of the K. K. K." The man was tried here this morning on a charge of having assaulted a 14 year old girl. He was freed on instructions of Judge R. C. Joiner. The prosecuting witness reversed her testimony given before the grand jury in making the serious charges against the man, and refused to appear against Bass. A hostile demonstration was made in the crowded court room when the man was freed and mob violence seemed liable, but friends of Bass hurried him away to Floydada, local officers think. It is believed he was caught there. Bass is forty years old. He recently came here from Sweetwater. Chief of Police W. R. Johnson of Sweetwater and Deputy Sheriff W. M. Barbee of that town appeared against Bass this morning at the trial. He disappeared soon after showing himself at the drug store, and has not been seen since.

TOM JOSEY, FORMER BRYAN CITIZEN, WAS KILLED AT HEMPSTEAD

Mrs. L. M. Glaze of Bryan, Mrs. W. D. Stalling, Mrs. Alex McCallum, Mrs. Frank Barnes and Will Josey, all of Tabor, were called to Hempstead on Monday in response to a telegram that their brother, Tom Josey, age 51 years had been shot and killed by Bassett Schultz, a neighbor early Monday morning. Cause of the tragedy is not known as not one word was spoken before the shooting occurred as reported by members of the family. Mr. Josey leaves a wife and eight children, Ernest, Mattie, Lena, Eddie, Frank, Maudie, Jeffie and Oliver; two brothers, Lee Josey, of Hearne and Mills Josey of Houston besides the above brothers and sisters mentioned.

Mr. Josey formerly lived in Bryan and Brazos county and was well known by a large circle of friends. He was respected for his honesty and integrity in all business affairs and was recognized as a good man and a good citizen.

Linda Brocksmith went to Houston yesterday afternoon to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Emma Gargano. Her many friends of Bryan will miss her.

MIDNIGHT PROWLERS CLIP GIRLS' HAIR AND ESCAPE

Miss May and Miss Worthington, Two Bryan School Girls While Sleeping, Have Their Hair Removed and Guilty Ones Make Their Escape Through Window.

Sometime during Friday night or the early morning hours unknown persons entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert May and clipped off the hair of their daughter, Miss Ethel May, aged thirteen years, and Miss Kittie Worthington, aged fourteen years, a sister of Mrs. May's. The girls were sleeping together when their hair was clipped. Evidence showed that the intruder made his entrance into the house through the kitchen window and left it up when he escaped. The hair of Miss May and Miss Worthington was long and beautiful and done up in braid. All of Miss May's hair was clipped away but the intruder failed to get all of Miss Worthington's hair, but of course the hair was completely ruined by the work of the burglar. Mr. Albert May was in Mexico and will be at home tonight. Mrs. May reports the occurrence to the officers and a full investigation of the crime will be made and it is to be hoped the guilty party or parties will be apprehended.

MISS CROSSE TO BE BRAZOS COUNTY NURSE

Miss Crosse is a registered Red Cross nurse and was in Red Cross service overseas during the World War. She is also a graduate of Columbia University, and comes with highest recommendations from the nursing service department at Boston, Massachusetts. Brazos County Red Cross is fortunate in securing the services of Miss Crosse at the head of its county health work.

SOME BIG HOG STORIES.

A farmer at Bartlett, Williamson county is reported to have recently killed a hog that netted $60 pounds. He sold 200 pounds of sausage, 230 pounds of lard and 120 pounds of meat, from the sale of which he received enough money to pay taxes for last year and the insurance on his house for this year, besides having a lot of the meat for his own use left.—Bryan Eagle.

That's nothing. A Fannin County farmer killed a hog that beat the above by forty pounds and then some, but no report as to the amount of sausage was received. The head, after it had been severed, weighed 95 pounds. There's money in such hogs all right, and if the country had a few more of them there would not be so much complaint about hard times.—Honey Grove Citizen.

MR. AND MRS. SWANCOAT TO MAKE HOME IN LAREDO

Paul E. Swancoat has accepted a position to take up tick eradication work in Webb county and will leave next week for Laredo to take up his new duties. (By Associated Press)
Paris, Feb. 1.—More than six hundred years ago—to be precise, in 1313—the peasants of the little village of Charchilla, in the Jura Mountains, brought a case before their feudal lord, Count Jean de Chernis, asking for justice against his tenants and liegemen of the neighboring village of Meussia, whose people prevented the peasants of Charchilla from fetching wood from a forest separating the two villages. In the document produced at the Appeal Court at Nancy only a few weeks ago, Count Jean divided the wood between two villages. A few days later the Nancy court, where matters had been in suspense for something like sixty years, upheld the feudal judgment and ordered the village of Meussia to hand over half the land in dispute to Charchilla and pay the accumulated costs of the case. During the 600 years the wood in question has long been cut down. All that is now left is a bare grazing tract on the hillside. The Meussians are obstinate folk, however, and have already announced their intention of appealing to the Supreme Court in Paris on the ground of technical error.

AUTOMATIC SHOE SHINING IS THE LATEST

(Honey Grove Citizen)

The first complete automatic electric shoe shining machine to be manufactured in the Bryan factory of the Automatic Electric Shoe Polishing Company of Texas has been received by E. C. Kerr of Houston, and is declared to be a great success, according to Mr. P. P. Cooper, general superintendent of the local factory. Two of those machines were shipped last week, but only one was received, the other having been severely damaged in transit and returned to Bryan, Texas for repairs.

Mr. Kerr has bought the state selling rights on the automatic polisher and has organized a company in Houston to distribute them throughout the state. Mr. Kerr says that he expects to distribute approximately 2000 of these machines in Texas shortly. The plant building the machines is located in Bryan, Texas, the home of the inventor and orders have already been taken for 225 of them, with the factory employing about 30 men. It is the intention of the company to locate assembling plants in other states. The machines is described as the achievement of the age. The machine which cleans and shines your shoes in fifty seconds is a wonderful time saving device. It does the work better than the average bootblack. All one has to do is to take a seat and placing his feet in the proper location, insert a dime and the machine will do the rest. The company is strictly a Bryan concern, of which Lee J. Rountree, a well known newspaper man and member of the Texas legislature is vice president of the company at Bryan.

A BEAUTIFUL BOOKLET.

Prof. Gabe Cazell sends the Eagle an illustrated booklet from the Mineral Wells Chamber of Commerce entitled "Ten Years Younger." It contains some beautiful scenery in the Palo Pinto hills, some railroad schedules, palatial hotel buildings and lots of beautiful pictures. The whole affair is very tempting—it is a long way to Mineral Wells. We would be happy to meet Sam Miller, Charley W. Wilson, Gabe Cazell and the others up there where the "healing waters flow," but—anyway we appreciate the thoughtfulness and the beautiful booklet.

Mr. Boriskie states that he was not at home when the raid was made and being in the pasture looking after some cows and returned to town before he knew anything of the raid on the stills. He says he had only five or six gallons of whiskey when the raid was made. He asks the Eagle to make these statements.

LEE J. ROUNTREE, Managing Editor

MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATED PRESS

At Hempstead, they are planning to raise fewer and better melons. That is not the slogan, men. Make it "more and bigger melons." In time of sorrow and distress, humanity needs the consolation and ecstasy of melonic abundance.—Houston Post.

The Houston Post on the firing line says: "There are but six more days in which to pay the poll tax and San Antonio is still 4,000 ahead of us. O ladies! Can't you rally for God home town and native land? Are you going to let that bunch of tamale eaters and pean crackers blast the councils of the brave in their hour of might?"

The Mt. Vernon Herald-Optic says: "The Bryan Daily Eagle published a fine column report of the recent annual meeting of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce and told a wonderful story of the work of that body for 1921. The Eagle is the best small town daily published in Texas."

Hon. Oscar D. Baker, of Milam County, a former citizen of Bryan, is a candidate for re-election as floratorial representative from Milam, Lee and Burleson Counties and so far has no opposition. Representative Baker made a good representative in the 37th legislature and will no doubt be re-elected on the record he made while in Austin. Success to you, Oscar, in all your laudable undertakings.

Col. George Bailey of the Houston Post says: "The cabbage movement from the Rio Grande will be in full swing soon. We want the Valley folks to know that we consumers will do our duty by the cabbage—we always do, and we hope they will get half of what we pay." You pay, George, $150 per ton for this Rio Grande Valley cabbage and the farmer who raises it only gets $6.00 per ton. He doesn't get enough of the money and you know it, George.

ENDORSEMENT OF A LIFE-TIME FRIEND GIVEN.

Editor Jack Robinson, of the Jewett Messenger says: "Judge Rufus Hardy is retiring from Congress after sixteen years faithful service. Bryan has a splendid piece of Congressional timber in the person of Hon. Lee J. Rountree of Brazos County. In our opinion Representative Rountree would represent our district with credit."

EDITOR MOYER WILL STAND BY NEGRO BOOTBLACK.

Editor Lee Rountree of the Bryan Eagle, has gone into the shoeshining business, or rather he and his friends have organized a company to manufacture automatic shoe shining machines which they propose to put on the market. Lee claims that one of his machines will shine a pair of shoes quicker and better than a negro boot-black can. You just drop a dime in the slot and the machine does the rest. Maybe so, but we'd rather give a negro a dime for a shine any time than an automation, because the negro appreciates it, and for an extra dime and a little praise will give you a shine that "you can see yourself in." He "sho can, boss." In looking over the list of directors for the manufacture of the machines at Bryan the following well-known citizens appear in the list: J. L. Edge, Lee J. Rountree, Major L. L. McInnis, Judge W. C. Davis, C. A. Harris, Dr. P. M. Rayson, Dr. J. N. Goodwin, Geo. J. Nedbelek, and N. A. Stewart and we wish them success.—Honey Grove Citizen.

FAYORS NEW CONSTITUTION FOR THE STATE OF TEXAS

(From Dallas News)

Bryan, Texas, Jan. 24.—Your editorial in The News of Monday regarding "The University's Hobbies," is timely, but like so many other splendid protests, does not go far enough. I proposed in the Thirty-Seventh Legislature a plan to remedy the dangers that are crippling our state educational and business situation—a constitutional convention—and I had hoped to have the support of The News. Complaints do not remedy conditions. There must be a definite purpose to meet the demands, and without it all the protests that can be filed will not meet the issues. Dr. R. E. Vinson, president of the Texas University; the board of regents and others interested would do well to consider a definite stand for reformation, which must come before the shackles are stricken from our institutions so that they can grow and expand to meet the demands and take a higher place in the educational system of the Nation. Texas should have and must have schools and colleges that place her in the forefront of the world in place. I am in favor of a constitutional convention as the only adequate remedy at this time. If any plan better than this can be offered I shall favor that plan. But in the meantime why wait and discuss the troubles we have? They need attention and need it now. Texas needs a new program because the business plans laid down fifty years ago do not meet the present demands. LEE J. ROUNTREE, Representative 22nd District.

CO. AGENT BEASON VISITS CONSOLIDATED SCHOOL AT COLLEGE

On Wednesday of this week County Agent C. L. Beason visited College Consolidated school in the interest of club work, and was cordially greeted by a large audience of enthusiastic boys and girls. With this school established for the purpose of demonstrating the benefits of a rural consolidated school, and with the A. and M. College actively supporting club activities throughout the state the county agent said he felt that this particular school should need but little, if any, encouragement to enlist wholeheartedly in the club work in Brazos county.

It was pointed out that already several hundred dollars in cash prizes for individual members, as well as handsome prizes for community club work, had been offered, and that no school in Texas had a better opportunity to succeed than this school located on the A. and M. campus where every assistance possible is available to the ambitious boy or girl club member. The outlook for an enthusiastic club at College Consolidated is promising. Paul Boriskie was chosen to arrange a meeting for organization of the club. County Agent Beason suggested that they elect for president some level-headed boy, a good looking girl who could write a neat hand, for secretary, and a live wide-awake club leader who loves boys and girls and who can enter into their joys and sorrows—if any.

MR. KINNARD WANTS SEED GUARANTEED

The editor of the Eagle received quite a lot of garden seed and flower seed from Washington sent us by Senator Morris Sheppard, Senator Charles A. Culberson, Congressman Eugene Black, Tom Connally, Max Buchanan and J. J. Mansfield. Marvin Jones, Hattin W. Sumners and others who are now trying to do something to earn their salaries. As we are very busy trying to edit a newsy newspaper we did not have time to plant and cultivate the seed. So we sent them out to Prof. A. W. Kinnard, who had not been in town for a week alleging he was ill with the following order of instructions: "Plant and cultivate these government seeds and at the harvest bring us half." While Mr. Kinnard received the order he immediately forgot his rheumatism, got out of bed and came to town and dramatically asked: "Do you guarantee that these seeds will grow?" That was a hard question, and one we could not answer and in absence of County Agent C. L. Beason we only said: "Try and see." It seems we have a slow chance for any vegetables this coming season.

BRYAN COUNTRY CLUB BEGINS GREAT TREE PLANTING CAMPAIGN

An extensive tree planting campaign has been begun by the Grounds Committee of the Bryan Country Club, by means of which the landscape effect and conveniences attainable by skillful tree planting, will make of the club grounds an advanced model. A wealth and variety of the finest trees have been donated to the club by the A. and M. College, the Experiment Station, members of the club and by individual friends of the club. Some of the rarest and finest trees known to horticulture, are included in the list, which is as follows: Twenty Arizona cypress, six Red Cedar, six Italian cypress, ten Camphor, twelve pecans, one hundred and thirty Poplar, ten Crispin Crepe Myrtles, twelve Spiraea Van Houttei, twenty-five Euonymus Japonica, twelve Ligustrum Nepalense, five hundred Amour Privet Hedge, six hundred Yaupon hedge, and five hundred Tamarisk (salt cedar) hedge. The Tamarisk hedge will be planted near the water front, where it will in time form a rustic bower to invite repose when the members of the club seek relief from the summer's heat. The Tamarisk planting, however, will serve at first, as beautiful hedges. A Yaupon hedge is being planted along the fairways to the golf links which will add beauty to the grounds. Grass greens are being built, and the links are being lengthened to a three thousand yard course. It has often been said by the visiting golf players from larger cities that the Bryan Country Club has the most wonderful natural advantages for a high class golf course in the country.

BIG LOSS BY STOLEN FREIGHT OF BRYAN FIRM

A firm in Bryan has been paid for December by the railroads $800 for storage of freight shipped over the roads for one month. It seems the time has come when such things should be severely dealt with. The idea among a certain class of thieves who will not do any kind of honest labor that they can rob the railroads and get by is bad. The people must pay all these losses by theft as the railroads under the law are allowed to charge all these losses up as expenses and fix a freight rate accordingly. The Eagle calls attention to this so that the people will know one reason why goods are so high. It is time for these thieves to go to work and quit stealing.

THE PASSING THROUGH BETTER COTTON SEED.

Sam E. Cavitt, one of the leading farmers of Brazos county is interested in the movement inaugurated by the Texas Farm Bureau Federation for better cotton seed to be planted in this section. D. L. Ray, manager of the Better Cotton Seed campaign, has notified Mr. Cavitt that he will work with him through the Farm Bureau, the county agents and the A. and M. College Extension Service. Mr. Cavitt hopes to see better cotton seed planted this year by the farmers of Brazos County. The better cotton seed movement is a move in the right direction.

NEW PRESIDENT OF C. OF C.

W. Houston Cole will be a busy man for 1922. He is president of the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce, president of the Bryan Building and Loan Association and chairman of the Brazos Red Cross besides holding several other public positions. Once when Jay Gould, at one time the greatest railroad magnate in the world, was approached to take up some public activity the committee began to apologize and say: "Mr. Gould we know you are a busy man and hate to ask you to act as chairman but—" Mr. Gould stopped them and replied: "A man who walks the streets with his hands in his pockets all the time hasn't the time to serve you. It takes a busy man to know how to do things worth while." So it is everywhere. The busy man is a success anywhere and the Eagle pledges Mr. Cole its support in all of his activities and believes the year 1922 will be successful despite the many drawbacks. At least the year 1921 is gone and what are many things that all are glad have passed. Now let all work for a greater, better and more prosperous Bryan and Brazos County and give our new president of the Chamber of Commerce the support he deserves.

DR. HELD AND MR. BECKWITH.

Dr. John A. Held and C. S. Beckwith sat side by side at the last Rotary luncheon. In fact the pastor of the First Baptist church was the guest of Mr. Beckwith and enjoyed the luncheon and the program very much. We do not know what these two gentlemen are fringing up in the way of amusement but it is safe to say that something will happen about the time Rev. E. B. Crimm, the evangelist comes to hold his revival meeting at the First Baptist church in March. They may have a dinner or something large enough for several to participate in. Who knows? And when you see Dr. Held and Mr. Beckwith together it will be a very bad mistake if you confuse them in anyway with Dr. Jekel and Mr. Hyde. They are always in the front rank when there is any real good to be accomplished in the affairs of life.

A. & M. STUDENT FROM PERU.

When the Eagle published the story by E. C. Utech last Wednesday citing the cause of the proposed or threatened war between Chile and Peru and to settle the old question of dispute between them L. A. Forga, a student from Lima, Peru, attending A. & M. College and taking work in the Textile Engineering Department was much interested in the article especially where it deals with Senator H. C. Zegarra, whose son Enrique Coronel Zegarra attended A. and M. College and graduated in the Engineering Department in 1920. Mr. Forga who is a member of a prominent family in Lima, Peru, has promised to write an article for the Eagle on the South American situation so far as war is concerned. If those two foolish little countries should go to war Mr. Forga would have to leave College as he is a lieutenant in the Peruvian army.

Rountree have been invited to be present during the exercises and the people of that community deserve great credit for their splendid community work. Director Walton Constructive Builder for Texas Agriculture

(By S. C. Hoyle)

In speaking of the work of Director T. O. Walton, of the Texas Extension Service of A. and M. College at the Loyalty Meeting given in his honor by the men and women of the department when on the New Year they called in a body at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walton at College Station, Lee J. Rountree, editor of the Bryan Eagle, said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: There are times when mere words are inadequate to express the real sentiments from the depth of our hearts and I confess now that since I have heard the testimony Messrs. Stanford, Buchanan and Orms and the reply of Director Walton there is hardly a thought to be added to the spoken record of this New Year night which is really unique and significantly significant in the annals of Texas official history. That a body of men and women like these should pay such a just tribute to the recognized and distinguished services of their chief, Director T. O. Walton, in the splendid manner that it has been done comes like a heavenly benediction, like a message that rings good and true and a pledge that is founded upon the eternal Golden Rule and as enduring as truth, service, fidelity and patriotism. But I want to add another word. That is that the sacrifices the men of the Extension Service of Texas make to serve the great agricultural interests of Texas is not all the sacrifices that are made. The noble women who are left at home, as well as those out on the fields of activity as their part for making home life in Texas out in God's great open country a better place in which to live, hope, work and succeed. I know this because I have witnessed the splendid and enduring results. To Mrs. Walton in line with the remarks of her distinguished husband I wish to say that when calls come to Mr. Walton not only to go over Texas but throughout the nation, you remained at the bedside in the home through the long days and longer nights, and some-time weeks for his return. While he is aiding and building some other home to meet the great test his chair is vacant in his own home day after day and night after night. I will not forget you and your service and your sacrifice in the great work for the men, women, boys and girls of Texas. It is one of the precious heritages of life to live for all time. My friends I perhaps know something of the outstanding work of Director Walton in the agricultural affairs of Texas during the years. In 1919 when it was fully demonstrated that Texas must consolidate her activities along the lines of agricultural organization a state wide conference was called in Waco and about 500 serious and thoughtful men, and women assembled to meet the problems of a better organization and give Texas an outstanding program for future action. I was appointed chairman of the ways and means committee along with fifteen other citizens of the state. Then came the real constructive work. We planned the organization of the State Council of Agriculture. We called to our aid and assistance Mr. Walton and others and then laid the enduring foundation. For months we worked and finally out of the activities grew the Texas Division of Farm Bureau Federation and Director Walton never despaired in all the preliminaries that taxed our physical and financial resources. His advice was founded upon true wisdom and patriotism. I have sat with him for hours and days and found his judgment sound and worthy of the highest consideration. We gave Texas the greatest organization in her history for real constructive work along the development of agriculture and home-life.

"Then, when we were faced with problem of an inadequate marketing association and the present Co-operative Marketing Association bill was drafted and introduced in the Texas legislature I with a number of Texas representatives assumed responsibility for the enactment of the law because such men as T. O. Walton gave their approval and endorsement of it after they had drafted it. It is now a law and has been termed one of the greatest pieces of constructive legislation ever passed by a state legislature and its expressed draft is being followed in other states where orderly marketing of farm products has become necessary to save the great tolling and producing masses and their prosperity. "When the Home Demonstration of Pioneer Citizen. News was received in Bryan Sunday night of the death of Mr. Kenney Johnson, a pioneer citizen of Caldwell, Mr. Johnson was a brother of Mrs. M. J. Parker of Bryan and was well known by the older citizens of Bryan. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon with interment at the old family burial grounds at Chrisman. M. B. Parker and Alben Carr were among those from Bryan who attended the funeral.

Fordson TRACTOR

$625 F. O. B. Detroit
"Yes I've more Time for Myself Since I Got a Fordson"

The Fordson Tractor is taking much of the drudgery out of farm life; it is solving the labor problem; it is reducing the cost of preparing land by almost one half of what it was with horses; and it is saving one third to one half of the farmer's time; and making farm life more attractive.

The Fordson will run your threshing machine—and at the most opportune time for you. It will operate the milking machines, saw your wood, fill your silo, pump the water, and take care of every kind of belt work—And don't forget—it will plow six to eight acres in a ten hour day, handling two plows with ease.

Thus the Fordson is the ideal year-round tractor. It will pay for its fall and winter keep in many ways.

There's a big story to tell you about the Fordson—and a true one—come in and get the facts. Or, if you prefer, telephone or drop us a card and we will bring them to you.

MOVEMENT STARTED FOR TREE PLANTING IN BRAZOS COUNTY

Saturday afternoon several interested men and women met at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, Bryan, to lend encouragement to the matter of tree planting in its relation to home beautification and civic attractiveness. From time immemorial bards and poets have sung and written about the grandeur of trees as they covered hill and dale, beautifying the landscape and furnishing a cozy retreat from the scorching rays of sun to man and beasts. As pointed out in an address to the Bryan people some years ago, Colonel Clarence Ousley stated that without stately mountains and other features lending natural beauty to the land, we should give more attention to the matter of tree planting to make our town and county more beautiful, and suggested that as a project of civic attractiveness we beautify the highway lending from Bryan to College, as well as give attention to our own homes and premises. Among those present at the meeting Saturday afternoon were Major W. R. Cavitt, Dr. B. Youngblood, A. D. Jackson, J. H. Sutton, R. F. Dreitzler, R. W. Persons, State Forester, H. O. Sieck, Miss Mina Henry, A. W. Buchanan, Mrs. Morris Tatum, Lee J. Rountree, E. E. Parks, S. E. Eberstadt, C. L. Beason, Major W. R. Cavitt acted as chairman of the meeting and C. L. Beason as secretary.

Dr. B. Youngblood, Director of the Experiment Station, A. & M. College, favored the meeting with a talk, not only interesting to those present but one which would be helpful to all our people throughout the county. He said he could not help but think we should turn our attention once a year to the matter of beautifying our homes, farmsteads, and our highways. He pointed out that the appearance of some farmsteads seem to need but one sign painted in big letters and that, "Here Lies a Dead Farm." Dr. Youngblood stated that many undertake to plant trees not adapted to this section and as a result the effort fails. He pointed out that among the dependable trees for this county are the commonly overlooked, but beautiful. Yaupon the dogwood, the red bud, live oak etc. Reference was made to the failures to get the California privet, water oak etc. to live and flourish on the College campus and grounds, whereas, the Yaupon, live oak etc. would have done well. Attention was called to the fact that the clay in Bryan was such as to hinder tree growth, but this, he said, could be overcome by digging holes four feet deep and four feet wide, set the tree in this and filling hole with sandy loam.

State Forester E. O. Sieck, of A. & M. College, stated that the institution of Arbor Day was most helpful, but as now established it did not suit all section as a tree planting day; it came too early for the North and too late for the South, but he suggested that people interested in planting trees do the work when time was appropriate for their section, or locality. He said he believed any effort that would create a love for plants and shrubbery, and a greater respect for trees in general would simulate finally, an interest in tree planting.

Mr. A. D. Jackson, Director of Publicity, Experiment Station, said he thought one reason for lack of interest in trees was due to the fact that our schools have not in the past realized the importance of teaching botany, a knowledge of which is essential in the fullest appreciation of plants and trees.

District Agent A. W. Buchanan said he had little faith in tree planting days as usually observed for the reason that they were usually given to fun and frolic. He said he thought the matter ought to be dealt with in a business like way. All present were heartily in favor of planting more trees in an effort to make our town and county more beautiful, but inasmuch as the time is late for some trees, it was suggested that a few demonstrations in beautifying homes and farmsteads be undertaken.

Dr. Youngblood said he would be glad to lend the facilities of the College for the success of this undertaking, and suggested that Mr. Hensel plan the work; Mr. Sieck advise what to plant, and Mr. Ness give instructions as to how to plant.

It was advised that a committee of five—three women and two men be appointed to solicit demonstrators who would carry out the plans and work as suggested by specialists, the owners of the property paying only for the shrubbery and the cost of putting out trees. Miss Mina Henry was chosen to arrange for representation of committee from Reading Club, and Mrs. Morris Tatum was asked to have parent-teachers' association represented on committee. The Chairman had not announced the names of men to serve on committee.

County Agent Beason suggested that some of the demonstrations be in town and the others in the country. Those interested in these projects should confer with the County Agent Beason or the Committee, which will be announced later.

Another meeting was called for next Thursday, February 2, at four o'clock, at Chamber of Commerce, when demonstrators will be selected, and steps taken to form a permanent organization for furthering tree planting throughout the town and county.

BODY OF MRS. KAPLAN ARRIVED AT 3 O'CLOCK

The body of Mrs. Pearl Kaplan, wife of Joe Kaplan, who died in a hospital in Denver Colorado, Friday, January 27th will arrive in Bryan this afternoon over the H. & T. C. railway at 3:05 o'clock. Willner of Houston. Mrs. Kaplan had been ill for more than a year and some two months ago her husband took her to Colorado in search of that great boon health. Deceased was 39 years, 3 months and 3 days old at the time of her death. She was born in Russia and came to the United States in 1913, direct to Bryan where she joined her husband who had preceded her some time before and they have made their home since. She is survived by her husband, Joe Kaplan, five children, Sam, Ben, Jake, Lillie and Rosa, all of Bryan and two sisters, one in Baltimore and the other of Montreal Canada. Mrs. Kaplan was a member of Temple Frede and was beloved among her friends for her loyalty to her faith and her kindness to others.

Mrs. J. M. Dunn went to Calvert Sunday to attend the funeral services for Paul Leonard a cousin of Mr. Dunn's, who died Saturday.

BRYAN, BRAZOS COUNTY, TEXAS STEEP HOLLOW, SMETANA AND LEONARD

Group B Vocational News Letter is the official handshaker for the vocational boys, their parents, and the trustees of Steep Hollow, Smetana, and Leonard. News letter will now take charge and introduce the three schools to each other.

"Steep Hollow, come up and tell us about yourself."

"What do you want me to tell?" "Tell us the names of your teachers, your trustees, and anything interesting you want to tell. Be careful, Steep Hollow, Smetana and Leonard are listening."

"We have three teachers: W. H. Stone, Principal, Miss Ethel Tobias, and Miss Laura Mimms. Our trustees are Mr. I. M. Cook, Mr. C. M. Risinger, and Mr. V. C. Andrews. We believe in them, too."

"Steep Hollow, tell us who the members of your class are, and the kind of projects they have."

"Well, Guy Tobias, Dan Hall, Raymond Matthis, Curtis Bullock, Brady Risinger, and Hilman Andrews all have pure bred gilts and sows. Two of our boys, Edwin and Oris Bullock, have not secured their hogs yet, but they have just joined our class. Elmer Moore is to have charge of the home flock of Rhode Island Reds, and is to keep farm accounts on his crop of thirty acres."

"What about your classroom and equipment?"

"Our classroom is dandy, except that it is a little small. Our equipment is not complete."

Smetana School.

News Letter—"All right, Smetana, can you beat that?"

Smetana—"In some ways, yes. We have a larger class and a larger classroom, but we do not have so many pure bred hogs. Our teachers are Mr. J. J. Haisler, Principal, Mrs. Haisler, and Miss Whitman. The trustees are Mr. John Kosarek, Mr. J. H. Wehrman, and Mr. Joe Cash. They made it possible for us to have a new school building this year."

"What about your class and the projects?"

"Henry Kosarek, Willie Merka, and Luke Scormarde all have pure bred Poland China gilts, while Guy Smith has a pure bred Duroc Jersey boar and Duroc Jersey sow. He bought the male from W. B. Cook of Hillcrest Farm. Louis Krc is to get a pure bred gilt. Louis Wehrman, Joe Scormarde and Joe Hollie all have sows or gilts. Peter Scormarde and John Farcham have pigs. Charley Nemec is to raise at least 75 turkeys, and we believe I will do it."

"Say, News Letter, tell Steep Hollow and Leonard that the state supervisor, Mr. J. B. Rutland said that our room, with the table, benches and book case that the boys made, was one of the very best in the state."

The Leonard School.

News Letter—"Leonard tell us who you are, and what you have done."

"When school opened on October 10, we had only one boy enrolled as a member of the vocational class; now we have eight. Joe Blazet, Mike Lero, Joe Paradosky, Frank Civa, Frank Luther, Jacob Bonski, John Biemki, Louis Pohollic.

Jacob Boriski, Louis Pohollic, and Frank Luther all have pure bred gilts and sows. Joe Blazet has a gilt. Frank Civa, John Biemski, and Mike Lero have two pigs each. Joe Paradosky has two calves.

News Letter—"That's good, Leonard. You are small but you have the spirit that wins. Stay with it."

"Listen to this, teachers, parents, trustees, and vocational boys! Each school is leader in some one thing. Steep Hollow has the banner for pure bred hogs, Smetana for size of class, size of room, and equipment made by the boys, while Leonard has it for its spirit and determination to win in spite of difficulties. Watch Leonard!"

The second issue of the News Letter will appear in two weeks. Let's make it a good one. In the next number we want the names of all the people in these three communities who have pure bred hogs, chickens, or cows.

Snake Heads Off The County Agent, Beason

Some time ago County Agent Beason suggested that we needed to reduce expenses and economize every way, suggesting the use of the "door knob" as a nest egg instead of losing the use of a real egg for this purpose. Now comes B. F. Foster of Steep Hollow and says that he killed a snake and seeing an unusual looking lump in the snake, began to shake and out came a "door knob." Who will tell us whether or not this was due to hard times, or was an example of economy on the part of the snake?

"Been so many milestones on the road of life, Rough road, rocky road, rutty from the strife! There's another corner—how my tired feet burn! How I hope the crossroad's just around the turn!"

Nearly to the milestone on the road of life, Rough road, rocky road, rutty from the strife! See, we near the corner—What? It's paved, you say! And I've walked the crossroad all the life-long way!"

—Walter Greenough, in Farm Life. The above lines express the condition of many farmers today; they are foot sore and weary—they have traveled in the same road too far, but cheer up, with abundant seasons, well-planned crops, and intelligent cultivation the "paved road" is just ahead. On this road will always be found a balanced system of agriculture, or diversification, crop rotation, soil conservation, livestock farming, etc.

Better cut out of Tuesday's Eagle the article by Director Walton on "Texas Agriculture." It will do to read it over and over again, and it is believed it will cause the wise farmers to think and then act—differently.

QUESTION OF GOOD COTTON SEED FOR TEX.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 31.—The average germination of 1921 crop cotton seed as compiled from tests made by the state seed laboratory of samples sent in to date from many sections of the state is 84 per cent, the state department of agriculture announced today. The average for 1919 was only 63 per cent, while that of last year was 78 per cent. These averages were compiled from both voluntary and official inspection samples and tend to show the comparative ability of cotton seed for this year, according to the announcement. There is considerable 1920 cotton, and sudan seed on the market in certain localities this year as a result of large quantities being carried over by both farmers and dealers. The average tests of 1920 cotton seed received this year by the department shows an average of 70 per cent. Cotton seed when properly stored and cared for, ordinarily holds up well for two years, said J. M. Del Curti, chief of the division of seeds, and many prefer it to new crop seed. In carrying the seed through as long a hot season as the past one, he said, there is great danger of overheating and rapid deterioration would follow. Farmers were urged by Mr. Del Curti when purchasing last year's seed to insist on a recent test. Tests made earlier than six months prior to the sale are questionable, he said, and this means that seed should be tested at least two or three times a year. The laboratory will make tests free of charge for citizens of the state. The average germination percentage to date on other field seeds are as follows: 1921 sorghums show 93 per cent average; 1920 Sudan grass shows 70 per cent, and new crop Sudan grass shows 84 per cent. Comparatively less Johnson Grass has been found in samples this year than the two preceding years, but many samples have been received that are heavily mixed with other noxious weed seeds. Farmers should give special attention to the purity percentage on the label that is now required by law and note particularly the weed seed percentage, the department warned. Official inspection samples will be drawn from all sections of the state this year. These samples will be tested in the state seed laboratory and the results together with the information on the dealer's label, will be published. This affords the public the opportunity to check up on unreliable seed dealers, the department explained.

BRYAN BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

The Bryan Building and Loan Association board of directors at the meeting Thursday afternoon agreed to submit to the stockholders the question of increasing the capital stock from $500,000 to $1,500,000. If this carries before the stockholders another series of stock will be put on sale in March, 1922. The directors decided an increase was necessary to continue the growth of the Association to take care of the building program in Bryan which is being asked by the stockholders and this one of the most important movements ever inaugurated in Bryan. The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bryan Building and Loan Association was held Thursday afternoon. President W. H. Cole was in the chair and Secretary-Treasurer S. E. Eberstadt at the desk. Present were J. B. Bagley, A. H. Leidigh, Wilson Bradley, W. S. Higgs, H. O. Boatwright, Robert Armstrong, W. S. Barron, F. L. Henderson, President Cole and Secretary Eberstadt.

Secretary Eberstadt reported receipts since December 22 to January 26 were $3,075.97. Interest was $437.61; transfer fees, 25c; dues collected, $2,590.50. The balance from last month was $47.61. Disbursement—Interest, $40.00; note, $1,400; express on books, $1.90; Christmas gift to S. E. Eberstadt, $50; balance on hand, $1,583.98. Only one delinquent stockholder for two months to the amount of $40 was reported. Homes completed and in course of construction, as follows: H. A. Saunders, Mrs. Nina H. Astin, O. O. Henderson and Chas. Holmes. Applications were approved when the Association had the funds, amounting to $10,500 as follows: C. S. Beckwith, D. D. White, A. W. Buchanan, O. J. Parks and H. R. Brayton. The legal opinion was filed that the Building and Loan Association had a right under the by-laws to loan money for building purposes outside the city limits of Bryan.

The following stockholders were present at the meeting which lasted from 3:30 o'clock to 5:45 p. m. and was a very important meeting: D. D. White, C. L. Beason, C. S. Beckwith, A. W. Buchanan, H. R. Brayton and O. J. Parks. Much interest was manifested in the deliberations of the meeting of the directors and in favor of home building.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried everything I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, as the treatment of many womanly ailments. If you suffer as these women did, also Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 85

WIFE OF SAN ANTONIO MAN WAS TOLD HE COULDN'T LIVE SIX WEEKS LONGER.

"Just before I started taking Tanlac my wife was told I couldn't possibly live more than six weeks longer but here I am a well man and not only that but I am fourteen pounds heavier than I was the day I took my first dose, and I can never forget Tanlac the longest day I live.

"I had been going down hill for seven years on account of stomach trouble and had gotten to where I could hardly eat anything. For two solid years I wasn't able to do a bit of work and finally I just gave up in despair. Tanlac did for me what I thought was impossible. I am eating anything I want now and am feeling fine, and am back on the job again. The above statement was made by Ed. E. Seffel, 231 Maryland St., San Antonio, Texas. Tanlac is sold in Bryan by N.
